Dear students,

Find attached the lessons of your English module.

File 02 is devoted for most common terms used in Counseling and Guidance field.

The other files are assigned for the lessons. Each lesson is followed by an activity that must be answered, and send off via my email for correction and evaluation.

Moreover, Grammar lessons that were determined to tackle are detached for now.

All in all, projects are replaced by essay writing

A/ Supports:

1- « Guidance is a process of helping every individual, through his own effort to discover & develop his potentialities for his personal happiness & social usefulness. » Ruth Strang. In the other hand, « Counseling is a series of direct contacts with the individual which aims to offer him assistance in changing his attitude & behaviors. » Carl Rogers.

2- The subject of guidance and counseling has gained great importance in recent years. In many schools well-planned efforts are made to provide assistance to individual boys and girls in deciding their future careers and education, and other personal problems. Guidance and Counseling helps learners to improve their academic performance.

B/ Question:

Depending on the provided supports above and your prior knowledge; write an essay discussing the importance of counseling and guidance in schools and education.

Note: * plagiarized essays won't be corrected. * Essay and activities must be written in a well-organized document, providing full name and group.
